

The following are credit card qualifications and fees.

Debit/Checking	customers payments are received directly from their checking account
Qualified	a credit or debit/checking card without reward points for the customer
Mid qualified	a credit or debit/checking card that have special reward points given to the customer or if the card numbers are keyed entered
Non qualified	a business to business card, a corporate card or keyed entered mid qualified card
Transaction Fee	transmitting and receiving authorization for a customers card
Settlement Fee	transmitting daily business receivable payments to the business checking account
Statement Fee	includes monthly hard copy of all business transactions and 24/7 technical and support service
Gateway Fee	monthly fee charged by an internet provider only if the merchant is using a point of sale system or wireless system